

VILLAGE OF
INDIAN HEAD PARK
ILLINOIS

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Incorporated in 1959, The Village received its name as one of the last Potawatomie Native American campsites. Since then, Indian Head Park has evolved into a quiet, affluent Village with beautiful homes nestled in a natural, forest-like atmosphere.

The Village housing stock ranges in value from $250,000 to over $1,500,000. The Village's population is mostly professionals, including doctors, lawyers, engineers, and other top-tiered management personnel.

The Village's commercial district is located along the Wolf & Joliet Road intersection corridor, offering a mix of retail & commercial uses. Along with the Village's business district, Indian Head Park is in close proximity to the Burr Ridge Center, offering fine dining and upscale shopping.

The business climate is complimented by excellent schools, parks, and local recreation. Indian Head Park is recognized as one of the best kept secret in Chicago, an extraordinary place to live, work, and play!
